Fer Keeps?

One of America's brightest young stars shines in a moving, funny story of teen passion and adult problems. Molly Ringwald (Fresh Horses) and her boyfriend share big college and career plans, but pregnancy forces some big changes. In spite of shocked parents, sudden wedlock and a shabby apartment, the newlyweds love keeps them merry—but will diapers put a damper on things? A sweet, sunny heart-tugger from the director of Rocky. (AS, AL, PG-13; 1.38. HBO February 19, 22, 25, 28 (CC) A Ep)

THE LAST

EMPEROR

1987 OSCAR® WINNER
BEST PICTURE

JOHN LONE
PETER O'TOOLE
JOAN CHEN

"Mesmerizing" says Newsweek about this winner of nine 1987 Oscars,® including Best Picture and Best Director (Bernardo Bertolucci). This dazzling saga tells the story of Pu Yi, the 3-year-old boy who became emperor of China in 1908. Living in the spectacular Forbidden City, Pu Yi grew up in sumptuous surroundings accompanied by royal treatment. Later deposed, the last emperor became a western-style playboy and then Japan's puppet emperor of Manchuria until the end of World War II. John Lone plays Pu Yi in his adult years. Peter O'Toole plays Reginald Johnson, his British tutor. (AL, V, BN) PG-13; 2/46. HBO February 12,15,18,21,24,26 (CC) A [E]

GLORY! GLORY!

Ruth is a tough, sexy, hard-living rock 'n' roll singer with a seedy past and a brilliant future — if she can get the exposure she needs. Bobby Joe is the TV minister who falls in love with her and offers her an unexpected chance to make it to the top. And Chet is the reporter who also falls for Ruth—and is the only man who can expose the secret that will destroy all her hopes of success. Ellen Greene (Little Shop of Horrors) plays Ruth in this provocative movie event. Richard Thomas plays Bobby Joe; Winston Rekert (Adderly) is Chet.
